

Fall for History

Registration Form for Admission Events

Friday, October 7

$15.00 - Workshop: "Save Your History for the Future", 10 a.m., Wallace Mining Museum, Presenter: Dr. Katherine Aiken, University of Idaho history professor and author
Topic: Researching, organizing, writing and preserving your history and more

$15.00 - Workshop: "Through the Camera's Eye", 1 p.m., Wallace Mining Museum, Presenter: Jan Boles, archivist/award-winning photographer, College of Idaho
Topic: Learn how to photograph historic buildings in the beauty of fall colors; suited to both amateurs and pros, and all types of cameras

$15:00 - Workshop: "Picture Not So Perfect", 2:30 p.m., Wallace Mining Museum, Presenters: Indy Behrendt and Lizzie Keittel, Wallace photographers
Topic: Tips on digital restoration of old, dog-eared faded photos

WORKSHOP SPECIAL: Attend all three workshops for $30

Saturday, October 8

Dinner Show "A Step Back in Time in the Silver Valley".
An evening show depicting the colorful characters that gave Wallace and the Valley its unique place in Idaho history.
$30 per person or $50 per couple for dinner and show
$20 per person for SHOW ONLY

Sunday, October 9

"Historic Homes & Hot Tea" Tour five historic homes and two beautiful churches. End your tour with refreshments at the historic Jameson Hotel. Tour of Jameson included in price. Tours run every 15 minutes starting at noon, ending 2:30 p.m. Time assigned.
$20 per person advance, $25 on Tour Day (if space is available)

"Voices from the Big Burn" Actors Paul and Carol Roberts take to the stage to recount the story of the historic forest fire of 1910 (which destroyed nearly half of Wallace), as seen through the eyes of Ed and Emma Pulaski.
$10 per person, 4 p.m., Sixth Street Theater

TOTAL DUE:

PAYMENT METHOD: Personal check _____ Cash _____ Credit Card _____
(Make checks payable to Wallace Chamber of Commerce)
TICKET PICKUP: At Time of Payment _____ Mail _____ Day of Event _____

NAME: _____ PHONE: _____ EMAIL: _____