HISTORIC WALLACE ACCORDION FESTIVAL

August 9-11, 2013

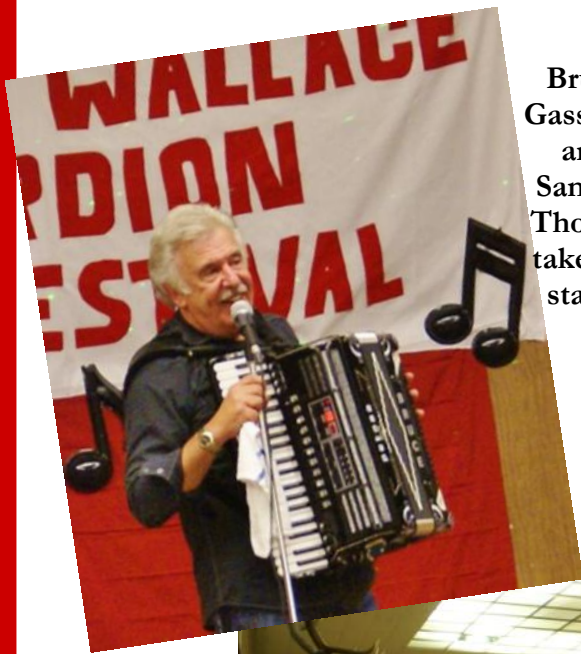

Michael Bridge and Bruce Gassman rock the crowds at 2013 Festival in Wallace, Idaho.

*Thank You, Musicians, Vendors,
Volunteers and Music Fans
for making the 3rd Annual Wallace
Accordion Festival a Big Success!!
Hope to see you again next year!*

Accordions Competition

Youth Accordion Competition winners were, l-r, Naomi Harris, first; Emil Haroldsen and Jon Owerko, tied for third; Kristen Owerko and Quasar Thomson, both honorable mention; and Logan Stephens, second place. In back, l-r, judges Jan Bujza, Bruce Gassman and Anita Price.

Talented musicians like those shown at left entertained the crowds from the Gazebo in downtown Wallace.

Michael's improvised accompaniment to the classic Charlie Chaplin film drew a full house to the historic Sixth Street Theater.

The queen-size quilt, made by Anne Alexander, left, was won by Diana Smith of Rathdrum, Idaho.

Saturday Dance

Some great dancing going on ... thanks to great instruction from Lynn Bridge.

The 2013 Historic Wallace Accordion Festival Committee - shown here as they prepare to appear in the Sam Steele Days Parade in Cranbrook, B.C. in July to promote the Wallace festivals - thanks those who attended our 2013 Festival and hopes you will visit again soon.

Our Special Thanks...

To Tempo Trend of Victoria, B.C. for being an on-site accordion and music supply vendor for the third year in a row.
Karl and Martin—Wallace loves you!

A Big Thank You...

To all those who came forward to help with setting up and taking down the gazebo, tent, tables, chairs, etc.; worked at registration and in our food booth, and in any way helped facilitate all the behind-the-scenes tasks that make a Festival happen.
